

FREDERICKTOWN.

The meetings at the Methodist church the past week have been progressing remarkably well considering the severe weather the people have had to encounter in order to attend. Rev. Hambley feels greatly encouraged over the prospect of a revival that will do a great deal of good in our village. These meetings are announced to continue indefinitely.

Mr. Willis Harry of Mansfield visited his brother, Mr. Charles Harry, and his family over Sunday.

Mr. Albert Sidney Gregg of Cleveland was the guest of Rev. Thomas Hambley and family a few days last week. Mr. Gregg was here making arrangements for a future meeting to start a campaign against the cigarette and its allied evils. The time of his coming was not definitely decided upon.

L. A. Hollwell of Toledo, Ohio, spent Monday of this week in Fredericktown.

Mr. John Stahl of Butler was a Fredericktown visitor on Monday last.

Mr. B. C. Belt of Mt. Vernon visited with Fredericktown friends last Sunday.

Mr. C. R. Cowne of Mt. Vernon visited Fredericktown last Saturday. S. M. Pollock of Baltimore, Md., was a Fredericktown visitor last Saturday.

Mr. Edson Breece of Mt. Vernon visited friends in this place last Sunday.

O. D. Pritch of Columbus was a visitor in Fredericktown last Friday. Mr. H. D. Shaffer of Mt. Vernon spent Sunday last visiting friends in this place.

H. N. Keene visited with Fredericktown friends last Saturday.

Miss Florence and Donald Sellers of Fredericktown were surprised by the many friends from Mt. Vernon Friday evening. Beside, Cliff, Ruth, Helen and Lucile Stinemetz; Comelia Baughman, Eleanor Zelsolt, Marie and Ellen Mills, Mary Mason, Mary Zelsolt, Helen Porter, Lillian and Hazel Dorsey, Karl Stinemetz, Hoy Jenkins, Palmer Barnard, Edwin Porter, Charles Myers, Allen Bostwick, Herbert Robinson, Samuel Cliff were present and had a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris entertained with a twelve o'clock dinner last week in honor of Mr. Dean's birthday anniversary. Covers were laid for ten.

A number of the members of the Fredericktown Thrill lodge attended the Masonic centennial at Mt. Vernon last Friday evening and report a most delightful time. Among those registering from here were Messrs Harry E. Cassell, J. H. Denman, Charles M. Hildreth, L. H. Ackerman, A. O. Wyker, Dr. E. V. Ackerman, Dr. W. H. Eastman, L. Jay Duke, A. C. Coffman, G. R. Simons, M. B. Fribble, G. B. Ackerman, John Whitford, J. G. Ralston, O. C. Buckmaster, F. L. Barnes, F. B. Darling, F. R. Clarke, H. O. Simons, L. B. Ackerman transacted business in Lexington on Saturday.

F. A. Day and son, Ivan, were in Bellville Saturday night.

At the meeting of the board of education last week, the re-organization took place. Dr. W. H. Eastman was elected president and Mr. O. B. James, clerk. Mr. L. H. Fribble, Dr. E. V. Ackerman, and Dr. Eastman were appointed a committee on text books and course of study. Mr. Q. B. James, Mr. A. D. Rinehart and Dr. Eastman on the committee on supplies. The regular board meetings will hereafter be on Thursday evening according to the new arrangement.

Our people can feel justly proud of our public schools under the able management of Supt. W. B. Borden. Last week Prof. F. B. Pierson of Columbus, the state school inspector, gave our public schools a visit and was most complimentary in his praise of the work being done and reports that the Fredericktown schools carry off the banner for number of foreign pupils in attendance here. We are also proud of the distinction won by Prof. Borden at the state meeting of Ohio superintendents at Columbus where he was highly honored by being made chairman of the committee on resolutions one of the most important committees of the association. Supt. Borden is worthy the honor thus bestowed and we congratulate him on the distinction thus given him.

Mrs. C. M. Hildreth visited with Mrs. J. S. Smoots in Mt. Vernon last week.

Mrs. Frank Wagner was quite ill with an attack of the grippe the past week.

Mrs. A. H. Fox visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Brown at Ankenytown over Sunday.

Mrs. Guy Ewers visited relatives at Ankenytown last Sunday.

Last Sunday evening a party of Mt. Vernon people came up to Fredericktown to attend the meetings in progress here. They had a delightful sleigh ride. Those in the party were Miss Letta and Miss Myrl Ewers, Misses Jessie, Gladys and Alina Knox, Mr. Richard Pelton, Mr. Andrew Proper, Messrs Elmer, Charles and Frank Porter.

Reports of the cold weather are that the thermometer registered from 14 to 17 degrees below zero on Monday morning last.

Mr. Maurice Levering returned to Ada, Ohio, to take up his studies in the school there the past week.

Mrs. S. A. Purdy of Waterford visited her son in this place last week.

Mr. D. M. Brumbach of this place last week sold his branch store at Waterford to Mr. Lee Stillwell and Mr. Scott Kirby. They were busy all the past week making the invoice preparatory to the change.

Leeta Mann visited with her uncle Dr. Slingsby at Mt. Vernon last week.

Mrs. Ray Algire entertained a number of friends Saturday evening it being the occasion of her birthday.

Mrs. W. E. Ball of Morgan Center visited relatives in this place last week.

A series of interesting revival meetings are being held this week at Waterford.

Mr. A. M. Klotz was a visitor in Mt. Vernon on business on Tuesday of last week.

Miss May and Gertrude Sprague visited their aunt Miss Grace Sprague at Bloomfield last week.

Mrs. Earl Crann of Orrville, Ohio, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. Charles Weller of Lansing, Michigan, last week visited Mr. Jas. Kanable and family.

Mr. Jos. Mason visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Huggins the past week.

Mr. Elmer Wilson and family visited with his brother Mr. Daniel Wilson and family at Centerburg last week.

The Independent farmers' institute will be held in Fredericktown on Feb. 11 and 12. An excellent program was arranged for at a meeting held by the committee on Monday and it is expected that the interesting attractions offered this year will bring the largest crowd of farmers to Fredericktown that has ever attended those institutes.

Mr. C. A. Ingham of Chicago Junction, O., visited friends in this place last Saturday and looked after his residence property now occupied by Mr. A. M. Klotz. Mr. Ingham formerly lived in this place, being agent for the B. & O. Railway company at that time.

Mr. Joe Carr who was laid up with grip several days last week is again able to be out and look after his jewelry store.

Mr. P. L. Wilkins is attending the poultry show at Mt. Vernon and has some blooded stock on exhibition there.

Mrs. Tracy Irvine who was quite ill last week is reported convalescent. Miss Anna Soyler, who went to Gowanda, N. Y., before the holidays, to visit her parents and other relatives after nearly a three weeks' absence returned to Fredericktown on Tuesday of this week to take a position in the Free Press office.

Mrs. W. S. Cummings and Mrs. Jennie Ball spent Tuesday in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. O. B. James, Mrs. Ebersole and Mrs. Charles Fink went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. C. M. Wright and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cocanour, were Mt. Vernon visitors on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Fred Darling, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. McCrary in Mt. Vernon the past week returned home on Tuesday of this week.

Something like one hundred people from this place went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday last to take advantage of the big sales the merchants are advertising for that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoup of Butler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Owen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Copper, the former a teacher in our public schools were called to Delaware on account of the serious illness of the former's mother.

Mr. Ray Hall and Mr. Daniel Brown of Chesterville have leased the Blackburn picture show room and expect to open a new up-to-date hardware and implement store there taking possession next Monday. They have bought out the implement business of Bartlett & Parmenter and will move that business to the new location. Fredericktown is pretty well supplied with stores of this kind but we understand these people are hustlers and will elbow enough room to make a place for themselves worth while.

Mr. Chas. Clint is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Ed. Blackburn, who has been running the picture show in this place the past few years, expect to remain in the room where he has his shop and do a more extensive business in the repair line. He is planning to get a rubber vulcanizing machine and go after the automobile trade in this section of the state.

Ellicott lodge I. O. O. F. of Fredericktown is sending out invitations to the members and friends for the annual banquet which will be held in the lodge hall on Thursday evening,

January 20. This is one of the most important social events of the year and is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure.

Dr. George J. Rhein is the next number on the Methodist Brotherhood lecture course on Monday evening January 17. This will be an exceptionally interesting number and everybody in this place should make an effort to be present.

The following officers were installed in the Wayne lodge K. of P. at their last meeting: Albert Zolman C. C., Wm. Darling V. C., Ralph Duke prelate, A. M. Terry K. of R. and S. C. J. Lovell M. of F., Philip Brawner M. of W., Lorin Zolman M. of E., Harry Vance O. G.

A party of fourteen young people composed a merry bob-sled party drove Saturday night to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Hyatt, north of Banga. The evening was spent in playing games and a delicious oyster supper was served.

Messrs Roy and Edwin Baker of Hebron, Ind., are the guests of their uncle M. W. Baker and family.

MT. LIBERTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Robertson of Columbus spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents here, Mr. and Mrs. Fenner Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd B. McBroom and daughter, Ruth, of Homer are visiting his parents here.

Mrs. J. B. Masteller is suffering from a swollen arm which is very painful.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Biddle of Brink Haven have returned home after a two weeks' visit with relatives here.

Grandma Jackson, who has been sick for seven weeks, is slowly recovering. It is the more surprising as she is 92 years old.

Aunt Mary Jackson of near Five Corners is suffering from rheumatism.

Miss Daisy Coe is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cole of Mt. Vernon.

Hazel Coe spent Sunday with friends at Banga.

Mrs. John Yorkam is seriously ill.

Freemont Poland and Howard Robertson are the leading trappers of our village. The former has taken $55 and the latter $35 worth of fur.

The most exciting story of 6wn village, which has spread to its remotest borders is a snake story. When the outgoing and incoming officers of Liberty township met at the election house on Monday, Jan. 3, to install the new officers, all attested to seeing snakes of various lengths and colors and their reputation was at stake until the following explanation was made: Some of the boys living near the election house while digging for skunks found fourteen large snakes in a hole which they lapped to the gate at the voting place until it gave it a frightful appearance.

Mrs. Tracy Irvine who was quite ill last week is reported convalescent.

Miss Anna Soyler, who went to Gowanda, N. Y., before the holidays, to visit her parents and other relatives after nearly a three weeks' absence returned to Fredericktown on Tuesday of this week to take a position in the Free Press office.

Mrs. W. S. Cummings and Mrs. Jennie Ball spent Tuesday in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. O. B. James, Mrs. Ebersole and Mrs. Charles Fink went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. C. M. Wright and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cocanour, were Mt. Vernon visitors on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Fred Darling, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. McCrary in Mt. Vernon the past week returned home on Tuesday of this week.

Something like one hundred people from this place went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday last to take advantage of the big sales the merchants are advertising for that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoup of Butler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Owen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Copper, the former a teacher in our public schools were called to Delaware on account of the serious illness of the former's mother.

Mr. Ray Hall and Mr. Daniel Brown of Chesterville have leased the Blackburn picture show room and expect to open a new up-to-date hardware and implement store there taking possession next Monday. They have bought out the implement business of Bartlett & Parmenter and will move that business to the new location. Fredericktown is pretty well supplied with stores of this kind but we understand these people are hustlers and will elbow enough room to make a place for themselves worth while.

Mr. Chas. Clint is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Ed. Blackburn, who has been running the picture show in this place the past few years, expect to remain in the room where he has his shop and do a more extensive business in the repair line. He is planning to get a rubber vulcanizing machine and go after the automobile trade in this section of the state.

Ellicott lodge I. O. O. F. of Fredericktown is sending out invitations to the members and friends for the annual banquet which will be held in the lodge hall on Thursday evening,

January 20. This is one of the most important social events of the year and is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure.

Dr. George J. Rhein is the next number on the Methodist Brotherhood lecture course on Monday evening January 17. This will be an exceptionally interesting number and everybody in this place should make an effort to be present.

The following officers were installed in the Wayne lodge K. of P. at their last meeting: Albert Zolman C. C., Wm. Darling V. C., Ralph Duke prelate, A. M. Terry K. of R. and S. C. J. Lovell M. of F., Philip Brawner M. of W., Lorin Zolman M. of E., Harry Vance O. G.

A party of fourteen young people composed a merry bob-sled party drove Saturday night to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Hyatt, north of Banga. The evening was spent in playing games and a delicious oyster supper was served.

Messrs Roy and Edwin Baker of Hebron, Ind., are the guests of their uncle M. W. Baker and family.

Aunt Mary Jackson of near Five Corners is suffering from rheumatism.

Miss Daisy Coe is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cole of Mt. Vernon.

Hazel Coe spent Sunday with friends at Banga.

Mrs. John Yorkam is seriously ill.

Freemont Poland and Howard Robertson are the leading trappers of our village. The former has taken $55 and the latter $35 worth of fur.

The most exciting story of 6wn village, which has spread to its remotest borders is a snake story. When the outgoing and incoming officers of Liberty township met at the election house on Monday, Jan. 3, to install the new officers, all attested to seeing snakes of various lengths and colors and their reputation was at stake until the following explanation was made: Some of the boys living near the election house while digging for skunks found fourteen large snakes in a hole which they lapped to the gate at the voting place until it gave it a frightful appearance.

Mrs. Tracy Irvine who was quite ill last week is reported convalescent.

Miss Anna Soyler, who went to Gowanda, N. Y., before the holidays, to visit her parents and other relatives after nearly a three weeks' absence returned to Fredericktown on Tuesday of this week to take a position in the Free Press office.

Mrs. W. S. Cummings and Mrs. Jennie Ball spent Tuesday in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. O. B. James, Mrs. Ebersole and Mrs. Charles Fink went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. C. M. Wright and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cocanour, were Mt. Vernon visitors on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Fred Darling, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. McCrary in Mt. Vernon the past week returned home on Tuesday of this week.

Something like one hundred people from this place went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday last to take advantage of the big sales the merchants are advertising for that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoup of Butler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Owen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Copper, the former a teacher in our public schools were called to Delaware on account of the serious illness of the former's mother.

Mr. Ray Hall and Mr. Daniel Brown of Chesterville have leased the Blackburn picture show room and expect to open a new up-to-date hardware and implement store there taking possession next Monday. They have bought out the implement business of Bartlett & Parmenter and will move that business to the new location. Fredericktown is pretty well supplied with stores of this kind but we understand these people are hustlers and will elbow enough room to make a place for themselves worth while.

Mr. Chas. Clint is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Ed. Blackburn, who has been running the picture show in this place the past few years, expect to remain in the room where he has his shop and do a more extensive business in the repair line. He is planning to get a rubber vulcanizing machine and go after the automobile trade in this section of the state.

MILLWOOD.

Mr. Ray Stitzel of Killbuck was the guest of Millwood friends Sunday.

W. O. Fry and wife of Brush Run took dinner with Wm. Smith Friday.

The Millwood White Sand company is erecting a new boiler house.

H. Rine, who has been working in Akron, is spending the week at his home.

A few citizens attended the farmers' institute at Danville Friday and Saturday.

A small fire occurred Friday evening at the home of Charles Humbert which would soon have destroyed the dwelling had it not been for the heroic efforts of Mr. Miller.

A long distance fight occurred at the sand plant Wednesday between two employees known as Scott and Happy. One had a hand scraper and the other a hammer. Serious injuries were undoubtedly avoided by the intervention of other workmen.

A series of protracted meetings will begin at the Disciple church Friday evening.

S. G. Taggart, who has been in a hospital in Minnesota, returned Sunday.

Mrs. John Yorkam is seriously ill.

Freemont Poland and Howard Robertson are the leading trappers of our village. The former has taken $55 and the latter $35 worth of fur.

The most exciting story of 6wn village, which has spread to its remotest borders is a snake story. When the outgoing and incoming officers of Liberty township met at the election house on Monday, Jan. 3, to install the new officers, all attested to seeing snakes of various lengths and colors and their reputation was at stake until the following explanation was made: Some of the boys living near the election house while digging for skunks found fourteen large snakes in a hole which they lapped to the gate at the voting place until it gave it a frightful appearance.

Mrs. Tracy Irvine who was quite ill last week is reported convalescent.

Miss Anna Soyler, who went to Gowanda, N. Y., before the holidays, to visit her parents and other relatives after nearly a three weeks' absence returned to Fredericktown on Tuesday of this week to take a position in the Free Press office.

Mrs. W. S. Cummings and Mrs. Jennie Ball spent Tuesday in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. O. B. James, Mrs. Ebersole and Mrs. Charles Fink went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. C. M. Wright and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cocanour, were Mt. Vernon visitors on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Fred Darling, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. McCrary in Mt. Vernon the past week returned home on Tuesday of this week.

Something like one hundred people from this place went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday last to take advantage of the big sales the merchants are advertising for that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoup of Butler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Owen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Copper, the former a teacher in our public schools were called to Delaware on account of the serious illness of the former's mother.

Mr. Ray Hall and Mr. Daniel Brown of Chesterville have leased the Blackburn picture show room and expect to open a new up-to-date hardware and implement store there taking possession next Monday. They have bought out the implement business of Bartlett & Parmenter and will move that business to the new location. Fredericktown is pretty well supplied with stores of this kind but we understand these people are hustlers and will elbow enough room to make a place for themselves worth while.

Mr. Chas. Clint is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Ed. Blackburn, who has been running the picture show in this place the past few years, expect to remain in the room where he has his shop and do a more extensive business in the repair line. He is planning to get a rubber vulcanizing machine and go after the automobile trade in this section of the state.

Ellicott lodge I. O. O. F. of Fredericktown is sending out invitations to the members and friends for the annual banquet which will be held in the lodge hall on Thursday evening,

January 20. This is one of the most important social events of the year and is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure.

Dr. George J. Rhein is the next number on the Methodist Brotherhood lecture course on Monday evening January 17. This will be an exceptionally interesting number and everybody in this place should make an effort to be present.

The following officers were installed in the Wayne lodge K. of P. at their last meeting: Albert Zolman C. C., Wm. Darling V. C., Ralph Duke prelate, A. M. Terry K. of R. and S. C. J. Lovell M. of F., Philip Brawner M. of W., Lorin Zolman M. of E., Harry Vance O. G.

A party of fourteen young people composed a merry bob-sled party drove Saturday night to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Hyatt, north of Banga. The evening was spent in playing games and a delicious oyster supper was served.

Messrs Roy and Edwin Baker of Hebron, Ind., are the guests of their uncle M. W. Baker and family.

Aunt Mary Jackson of near Five Corners is suffering from rheumatism.

Miss Daisy Coe is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cole of Mt. Vernon.

Hazel Coe spent Sunday with friends at Banga.

Mrs. John Yorkam is seriously ill.

Freemont Poland and Howard Robertson are the leading trappers of our village. The former has taken $55 and the latter $35 worth of fur.

The most exciting story of 6wn village, which has spread to its remotest borders is a snake story. When the outgoing and incoming officers of Liberty township met at the election house on Monday, Jan. 3, to install the new officers, all attested to seeing snakes of various lengths and colors and their reputation was at stake until the following explanation was made: Some of the boys living near the election house while digging for skunks found fourteen large snakes in a hole which they lapped to the gate at the voting place until it gave it a frightful appearance.

Mrs. Tracy Irvine who was quite ill last week is reported convalescent.

Miss Anna Soyler, who went to Gowanda, N. Y., before the holidays, to visit her parents and other relatives after nearly a three weeks' absence returned to Fredericktown on Tuesday of this week to take a position in the Free Press office.

Mrs. W. S. Cummings and Mrs. Jennie Ball spent Tuesday in Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. O. B. James, Mrs. Ebersole and Mrs. Charles Fink went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. C. M. Wright and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cocanour, were Mt. Vernon visitors on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Fred Darling, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. McCrary in Mt. Vernon the past week returned home on Tuesday of this week.

Something like one hundred people from this place went to Mt. Vernon on Tuesday last to take advantage of the big sales the merchants are advertising for that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Shoup of Butler were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Owen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Copper, the former a teacher in our public schools were called to Delaware on account of the serious illness of the former's mother.

Mr. Ray Hall and Mr. Daniel Brown of Chesterville have leased the Blackburn picture show room and expect to open a new up-to-date hardware and implement store there taking possession next Monday. They have bought out the implement business of Bartlett & Parmenter and will move that business to the new location. Fredericktown is pretty well supplied with stores of this kind but we understand these people are hustlers and will elbow enough room to make a place for themselves worth while.

Mr. Chas. Clint is reported seriously ill with pneumonia.

SLEIGH.

Upset And Driver Was Thrown Out And Injured

Arthur Allison, a gas driller, was returning from Martinsburg Monday evening and was driving up South Main street when the runner of his sleigh caught in the street car track and overturned. Mr. Allison was thrown to the ground, striking his face and forehead. He sustained numerous bruises in addition to a bad cut over his right eye. Dr. C. K. Conard rendered surgical attention.

A Wretched Mistake

to endure the itching, painful distress of Piles. They're no need to Listen: "I suffered from Piles," writes Will A. Marsh, of Silver City, N. C., "till I got a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and was soon cured." Burns, Boils, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Eczema, Cuts, Chapped Hands, Chills, blains, vanish before it. 25c. at G. R. Baker & Son's, Mt. Vernon; F. Fink, Fredericktown.

FOR SALE—118 acre farm, well improved, close to town. $80 per acre. W. C. Rockwell & Bro.

Administrator's Sale of Real Estate

In pursuance of an order of the Probate Court of Knox County, Ohio, I will offer for sale at public auction on Tuesday, the 8th day of Feb., at 10 o'clock, a. m.

at 1 o'clock, p. m., the premises following described real estate, situated in the township of Jackson, in the county of Knox, and state of Ohio, and being the east part of the southwest quarter of section four (4) in township five (5) and range ten (10), commencing at the southeast corner of a lot of land heretofore conveyed by F. P. Hess to William Darling (in said southwest quarter) in the Day, Leonice east, along said Darling's east line 148.80 rods to the north line of said quarter; thence east along said north line 71 rods to the northeast corner of said quarter; thence south to the southeast corner thereof; thence west along the south line of said quarter 61 rods to the place of beginning, containing 1.33 acres, more or less.

Appraised at $25.63.

Terms of Sale: One-third cash, one-third in one year and one-third in two years from date of sale; deferred payments to be secured by mortgage, and to bear interest, or for all cash at the option of the purchaser.

ROLLIN C. HALL, Adm'r with the will annexed of William Hall, deceased.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, ATT'Y for Administrator.